

BRECKENRIDGE NEWS.

Jas. D. & V. G. Dabbs, Editors and Proprietors.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 4, 1894.

FOR CONGRESS.

WE are authorized to announce A. R. MONTGOMERY, as a candidate for Congress, subject to the action of the Democratic Party in the Primary Election, to be held on the 4th day of August.

This is July '94. Your label and if it reads July '94 it shows that your time has expired. Please renew at once.

That tariff bill that went through the Senate last week was sort of a dog for Democrats. But we had better take a half a loaf than no bread.

Dave Murray has a chance to win in his race for Congress if his own county stand up for him. Breckenridge county should give him a solid vote.

A student of Bradstreet has been investigating failures, and finds that about 80 per cent of the business houses that go to the wall are those that do not advertise.

The County Sunday School Convention which meets at Lexington next Friday will no doubt be largely attended. The good people around there will throw open their doors and their dinner baskets to all comers, for one day and make them feel at home.

What the Democrats of Breckenridge county need is a good, old-fashioned revival. They want to get near enough together to shake hands and then send up a shout for Democracy. Republicans are relying on their dissensions to pull them through in November. A united Democracy can win easily.

In the In-and-Out-Kentucky column of the Courier-Journal, it is said that letters written from the Fourth Congressional District, covered the information and prediction that "Hon. David R. Murray will carry Green, Taylor, Murray, Washington, Laffee, Breckenridge and Grayson counties by varying majorities."

Country people don't know anything about hard times. Strikes and labor riots don't bother them. They are always plowing their corn, hoeing their tobacco and cutting their wheat and have never thought of hard times. We have never enjoyed a country home yet where there was not plenty to eat and some of the very best. Country people don't know how well off they are.

Hos. M. C. Lisle, representative in Congress from the Tenth Kentucky District, died at his home in Winchester, last Saturday, the 7th inst. Mr. Lisle was the youngest Kentucky Congressman, being not yet thirty years of age. He was an accomplished gentleman, loved and respected by all who knew him, and his death is greatly mourned by his constituency and his associates at Washington.

There isn't enough enthusiasm here for Dave Murray. His friends in the upper end of the district are working like beavers for him. They are organizing clubs wearing badges and holding meetings in his interest. If his friends here at home don't give him the nomination they must exert a little more activity for him. Get out the vote. Every man to the polls to what he wants and what it will take to elect him. Murray, men get a move on you.

The Asphalt mines near Gardfield are now turning out from 80 to 100 tons of asphalt daily. Many of the mines, who is in charge of the work, said that the News a few days ago that his asphalt had been given a thorough test in New York and was proving entirely satisfactory. Some of it had been shipped to the city of Buffalo for four years and was as good now as when it first went down. The hills around Gardfield are full of the mineral, and it is being worked on in all directions. About one hundred hands are on the pay roll.

James Milton Board is making a good, active canvass for County Attorney. He never misses a public gathering, no matter how hot it gets, nor what distance he has to travel. He is always on hand and as active in his movements as some who are younger in the fight. In all of his career as County Attorney the judge has seldom ever missed a call upon him for his official services, and has been most faithful to every duty imposed upon him. Being so well acquainted with the duties a County Attorney is required to perform, it is almost certain the people will continue him in his present position another term.

The merchants of Moolleyville are the most depressed set of fellows you ever saw. They say the failure of the fruit crop up there has knocked the bottom out of business completely. They talk of moving out. Our experience, in moving around over the country, is that the merchants as a general rule all tell the same story. It is true times are dull, but they are no worse in one section than another. This country is not in hard times makes us tired. Times are just what you make them. If a merchant sits down on an old greasy nail keg and cries hard times to every fellow that comes in, you may get the better view, but it will always be hard times in that store. We say to the merchants and everybody get out of your old "hard times" talk. Say something about the good crops which you see all around, and dry up such nonsense, and our work for it, times will get better. Get a move on yourselves and the times will move with you. Times are getting better every day and with the crop prospects before us they'll be better than we ever knew them.

The best time of the News ends its eighteenth volume.

THE BRECKENRIDGE NEWS at $1 a year is cheaper than wheat at 45 cents a bushel.

It looks like something worse than a cyclone had struck Chicago. Poor old Chicago.

Born of our lanks are in good shape and declare their regular semi-annual dividend of 4 per cent.

You can buy Georgia watermelons down in Georgia three for a nickel. Gosh, wouldn't we like to be down there.

Hon. D. R. Murray will speak at Shepherdsville, next Saturday the 14th at 1 Vine Grove on Monday the 16th.

Get on top in your business. Do it by advertising. Keeping everything at it in good times and in dull times is the way to reach the top.

Our Elizabethtown correspondent is writing. He keeps a watch on the movements of the enemy and heads them off at every corner.

No man ever went out from home with a more universal support of his home people than does Dave Murray. He will carry Breckenridge county by a larger majority than it was ever carried before.

The girls over at McDaniel say that Judge Board is one of the cutest old men and can say more cute things than any of the candidates. The Judge has some cute old ways about him, and getting around with the girls and babies comes just as natural to him as holding the office of County Attorney.

CONGRESSMAN Montgomery has been called to Washington by Speaker Crisp to take a position on the Conference Committee that is to pass over the battle-worn Wilson bill. He has been since it has run the gauntlet of the United States Senate. And last Saturday the Louisville Post in a half-column editorial drew the attention of the people to the fact and tried to leave the impression that if it were not for Alex. this country would take a tologian sleep for perdition. This is a very good political schenning on the part of Speaker Crisp.

Mr. Montgomery, the Post and others, but the people fully understand their tricks in trade. Of course the Post has but a small circulation in the Fourth Congressional District, but mark our words, it is the intention that every Montgomery paper in the district shall editorialize this week. Such scheming would probably have some effect, if the people were too ignorant to know that Mr. Montgomery has already let the opportunity slip wherein he might have been instrumental in helping to make a Democratic tariff bill the law of the land. Last spring was Mr. Montgomery's golden opportunity. He then, as a prominent member of the Ways and Means Committee had the chance and the power more than any ordinary Congressman to see that the people of the land had a tariff law passed in accordance with the Democratic principles they voted for. But what did we get? A measure that is denounced by true Democrats all over the land as a Republican protection measure. It is too late to try to rectify the mistake now in a "Conference Committee" that can not possibly make any material change that would be accepted by the Senate. It does not satisfy to say "It is a step in the right direction," but that the people would be the thing that would be the thing in both ways. If this majority don't see fit to pass such a law, it is no fact of Democracy, but of Democrats? Whom we sent there to legislate. The only remedy is to elect a new Congress who will pass Democratic laws.

Cool, refreshing water, fine music, a good dinner and lots of pretty girls will greet you at Elder's Spring Saturday July 28.

OFF THE TRACK.

E. E. McKay Announces That He Is No Longer a Candidate for Congress.

BARNSWORTH, Ky., July 3, 1894.—To the Democratic voters of the 4th Congressional District.—The limited time for a canvass, the partly covered condition of the field and my inability to meet required pecuniary conditions of the primary impel me to withdraw. I am also unwilling to enter a canvass already characterized by the use of antagonisms, and into which there has been injected unjust and improper political considerations. I do not permit a re-election. I am sorry that it is so. The times are revolutionary and perilous for party and people. Harmony and peace are the only basis for a party and political ability and competency should alone be the tests in the contest. Thank my friends for their support and happy that I am free from my opponents in the race. I am free from them and in the line of the ring say, "And may the best man win."

Very Respectfully,
E. E. McKay.

Those present were fifteen or twenty of the little folks present, and everything indicates that it will be a success.

Mr. James Miller sent in his resignation as County superintendent last Friday and Judge Adkinson appointed Mr. Richard Adkinson to fill out his term. Mr. Miller's term would have expired about the first of August.

The Vesper Service on Sunday afternoon was conducted by the 1st Vice President, Miss Anna Gardner. Miss Lizzie Smith read the comments on the lesson from the Epistle to the Romans.

Miss Gardiner conducted the bible reading which was participated in by all present.

The 3rd Vice President has arranged an interesting program for the 4th Tuesday. It is a symposium of authors participated in by all of the members of the League.

It would be well for the vice president of each department to consult with their assistants and arrange a plan of work for the next business meeting.

The social staff has arranged an interesting program of music as one feature of the evening's entertainment on next Tuesday.

AT MR. AND MRS. C. L. BEARD'S.

The most enjoyable event of the season was the Fera Lanchon given last Friday evening by Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Beard in honor of their guest, Miss Beulah Hensley.

The youth and beauty of the town were present and Mr. and Mrs. Beard had provided everything for the occasion that was calculated to add to the pleasure and enjoyment of all.

It may be doubted whether there has been, for a long time at least, a more elegant affair of the kind here.

The invitations seemed to have all been accepted, and from 8 until 10 o'clock the house and premises were filled with a gay company.

The lawn surrounding Mr. Beard's premises and the walks leading to his home were all decorated with white flowers and the effect was most pleasing.

The lawn is probably one of the prettiest in the place, and it was here that the young folks passed the evening.

The lawn, however, a number of very chairs and numerous rugs were scattered about under the trees and this added to the beauty of the scene.

The lawn, Mr. Beard himself had constructed a rustic bridge that attracted much attention.

It was ten o'clock when the company were seated for refreshments. The rooms were tastefully decorated with ferns and flowers and the refreshments served were sufficient in both quantity and variety and it is said that the merry auxiliary had been added for the pleasure and comfort of the entire company.

RETIRED VICE PRESIDENT. Owing to the death of a partner, Mr. Meador, we are compelled to ask all who are indebted to the firm of WIT & Meador to come in and settle right away as I will have to collect by law all failing to do this. Wheat or produce of any kind taken in payment of accounts or for goods. Very Truly,
J. A. Witt.

Safe and sure to regulate the bowels.—Ayer's Cathartic Pills never fail to give satisfaction. Recommended by eminent physicians.

BRANDENBURG.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Main have returned home.

Mrs. Weldon Barrett's children are with her.

The supper by Baptist Missionary ladies was a success.

Tim McCallie, of Louisville, spent the Fourth at home.

Father Heruth had services last Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Charles Wathen and children will spend this week in Breckenridge county.

Messrs. Kocco and Berne Stevens came up from Henderson and spent the Fourth here.

Mrs. John Haden is standing the very warm weather well and will soon be able to ride out.

Miss Nellie Hadley, of Elizabethtown, is visiting her grand-parents, Judge C. C. Fairleigh and wife.

Mrs. Mollie D. Carrio, Miss Mary Taylor and Mr. Perry Taylor are guests of Mrs. John Hamilton.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Johnson and little Dink Price have returned from Louisville and Cincinnati.

Leo Reiman is going to try music. He is full of vim by inheritance, application is all he'll need to succeed.

Miss Lizzie Hawkins has not been so well but is as bright as hope and cheerful as light as tonic within themselves.

Mrs. Eckette and her grandson, Curtis Beck, attended church here last Sunday. They are visitors of Mrs. James Eickstein.

Miss Susie Richardson is with her sister, Mrs. Jeff Tilton. Miss Susie's health is very poor and she comes for recuperation.

The Soda Ash Plant rendered in Status quo and presumably the pendulum is still swinging towards an opening.—When?

Misses Eva and Maude Herndon and Nellie R. Lewis and Mr. W. S. Howard are off for Cloverport and Holt to stay two weeks.

Mason McMonie and Chas. Bryant will embark in the merchandising business here at the Green Front and we hope successfully.

Brother Hagan gave us two good sermons last Sunday and at night he was greeted by the largest congregation I've seen for a long time.

Misses Jennie Hadden and Lida Haynes, Messrs John Powell and Hewitt McCallie attended the ball last Saturday night given by Mrs. Greedy at her pleasant home in Ekron.

Mr. Gordon Moorman spent the Fourth down at the classic, old mill near the town of Ohio with a party of "bells and beaus and their choruses."

An interesting article on Wellesley College, told very graphically, by Miss Abbie Mcquire appears in Sunday's Courier. Miss Abbie is a friend and schoolmate of Miss Bertha Lewis and has visited here where she made many friends. The picture of Miss Hiram McCallie appears in the same edition. She too is much admired here and will soon take upon herself matrimonial vows. To her of course, our congratulations, tho' somewhat previous perhaps.

Elder S. B. Beaver, of McAllisterville, Juniata Co., Pa., says his wife is subject to cramp in the stomach. Last summer she tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for it, and was much pleased with the speedy relief it afforded. She has since used it whenever necessary and found that it never fails. For sale by A. R. Fisher, Cloverport, Ky., and Kincheloe, Meador & Co., Hardinsburg, Ky.

Now Is the Time to Buy Your Winter's Supply of Coal.

I will sell you screened Lump coal from Falcon mines at 75c per bushel delivered to all all customers of mine within the city limits, orders to be for not less than 100 bushels cash with order. Coal to be delivered in reasonable time. Nothing but spot cash with the order goes at this price.

R. B. PRICK.

More Fine Sport.

Perry Hopper has done some more good bicycle racing. At Cincinnati on the Fourth of July, in a fifteen mile road race, where there were 150 starters he finished 28th. In Louisville, last Saturday, he finished 10th in an eight mile race where there were 75 starters.

Later in one mile handicap he finished sixth in a race of 100 starters, and the man who beat him by this short distance had 40 yards the advantage of him at the start.

There is a quarter-mile bicycle track being gotten up in Cloverport now, which will be finished in a few days, and we will soon have some fine sport in Cloverport.

THEY LOVE HIM.

Hon David R. Murray Has Friends in Upper Meade and Hardin Counties.

Montgomery Could Raise No Stir at Stithton, His Old Stronghold, on the Fourth.

WANT MURRAY TO COME.

MULDRAUGH, MEADE COUNTY, KY., July 6, 1894.—TO THE EDITOR OF THE BRECKENRIDGE NEWS.—Many of the voters of Muldraugh and vicinity are for Hon. David R. Murray for Congress. Many of the good citizens of this part of the country moved here during the past few years from Breckenridge county and to have known David R. Murray was to love him, and that we do and are for him for Congress.

Mr. Montgomery delivered a short address on the Fourth at Stithton, and although the crowd which listened to him could be heard expressions favorable to Mr. Murray. This is extremely gratifying, because of the fact that Stithton and vicinity has always been considered Mr. Montgomery's home, rather as his strong hold.

The people up here are very anxious to hear Mr. Murray speak. His friends have worked hard for him and his name has almost become a household word. But the people, naturally, want to see him and to hear him. If he would make an appointment to speak, this part of the district in the immediate future, he would only be doing himself justice and would undoubtedly carry this part of the district. His friends want him to come very much, for they anticipate what sort of impression he would make.

One of Mr. Montgomery's staunchest friends the past, said today that he had always supported him, but that this time he would not vote for him. This man is one of the wealthiest and most influential farmers in this section. He has stood the test of thirty-five years with you, and are here, still.

ALL RIGHT IN HULLIT.

Shepherdsville, Ky., July 9, 1894.—ERROR NEWS.—The Murray tidal wave is coming mountain high. To-day Mr. Murray speaks in Bardonia and will stay in Nelson county until Saturday when he will come to Ballitt. He will address a large crowd at Parquet Springs that day and another large crowd at Mr. Washington that night.

Caught An Accused Horse Thief.

Deputy Sheriff Peter. Wrote arrested a young man named Peter Pleasant, in this city Monday evening, who was accused of stealing a horse in Hancock county near Havesville, Sunday.

Monday morning Elias Warner, a farmer of Hancock county came to this city and told Wrote to be on the lookout for the thief. The horse had been stolen near Havesville and ridden up into Stettin's Bottom and there turned loose, but Pleasant had been seen walking in this city and carrying the saddle, which had also been stolen.

In the afternoon Sheriff Wrote found the man down at the Breckenridge depot trying to sell the saddle. The saddle was hid out in the bushes, but the young man brought it out and contracted to sell it to the sheriff. They came up town to the depot and the horse was put under arrest. He was taken to Havesville Monday night and lodged in jail. As the grand jury is now in session down there, short work will no doubt be made of his case.

Peter Pleasant was raised over about Tobinport and is not a stranger in this city. He says that he has recently been mining coal at the Falcon mines.

Snake On Her Back.

While Mrs. Jake May, of this city, was gathering berries on the Burnett farm, on Sunday last, she was bitten by a snake on her back. She was sitting down, getting berries, when the snake crawled up her back. She reached around with her hand and discovered that the something was between her outer dress and inner garment. She then raised up and found a copperhead snake full out of her clothing to the ground. Instead of screaming and fainting, Mrs. May went on about her berry picking, and the snake gathered twenty-five gallons of berries that afternoon.

Our Teachers.

The school board met last Thursday night and after due deliberation selected the following persons as teachers in the Cloverport High School for the ensuing school year: Prof. J. H. Logan, of Cloverport; Prof. W. W. W. of the school of Rome, Ind.; First Assistant: Miss Mary Moorman, of Cloverport, Second Assistant: Miss Annie Raitt, of Cloverport, Princeton. The date for school to begin has not yet been fixed, though it will probably be the first Monday in September.

GETTING HOTTER.

"Correspondent" Writes Again in His Usual Enthusiastic, Vigorous Style.

MURRAY IS THE CRY.

ELIZABETHTOWN, Ky., July 7, 1904.—EDITOR NEWS.—Since my last letter to your excellent paper Mr. McKay has been on and off the track for Congress. You will remember that I foreshadowed his coming into the race in the interest of Mr. Montgomery. I was able to do this because I had heard of the result of the secret caucus of the triumvirate which sat at the Custom-house in Louisville immediately preceding his announcement. But the scheme would not work worth a cent. It died "born." They soon learned that the people could not be stuffed in this manner. They were indeed sorely perplexed and greatly befuddled.

But what was their next step? Why, sir, unsubstantiated, inside of two days after they had got into their began to consider the best plan to get him off, when they fell upon the plan of belittling his candidacy. It was announced by "the custom house clique" that McKay's candidacy was the very essence of the wildest dream; a delusion of a back number in politics, that he would not get a half dozen votes in his own county, etc. Of course this was done to try to convey the impression to the people that they had nothing to do with his candidacy and were as remote to it as the strongest Murray advocate.

But they have miserably failed in their schemes all round so far and from the present outlook they will be thoroughly convinced on the 4th of August that honesty is indeed the best policy.

Before bidding the "clique" a final adieu I wish to call their attention to a bit of verse that my muse has dedicated to them:

We thought we had a nice, clear track, But now 't's a Jack-a-day,
They've got Dave Murray on the track, And on the track to stay.
Aye, say indeed, just as you say, Tho' 'twas late to begin
Haven't only on the track to stay, But also on to win.

Chorus.

Then skip up, boys! Montgomery's gone! Our tricks are an end!
For Murray is a winner sure, In spite of every dollar we can spend.
Good-bye, Ben Johnson and Dave May, Gus Richardson and clique.
The PEOPLE will see with their own eyes, then you will feel quite glib.
Then celebrate! Roll out the gun, Ram well and let her bang!
The PEOPLE triumph! They have won! Rye bye, Alack, and your "rat" gang.

Chorus.

Then skip up, boys! Montgomery's gone! Our tricks are an end!
For Murray is a winner sure, In spite of every dollar we can spend.
But I started to write you a letter, so I shall proceed without ceremony.
Among the many causes which will aid the cause of the Bourbons, and which appears to give them as much concern as anything else, is the determination of those who failed to read any "globe" to vote for Murray and give him their influence. Nor are they to blame, if I report of Montgomery's manner of endorsing applicants for position, especially in the revenue service, be true. It is said his plan was to endorse every Democrat who applied for a place, but had a secret understanding with the appointing power as to who were to get the places. It is furthermore charged that the motto was to "put none but original Montgomery men on duty." No matter how good a Democrat one might be, and however meritorious and how much good he had done for the party, if he had not always been for Montgomery he was to get left. These big ugly charges from the many who failed and I tell you they are making them count too.

Our people here say that it is plainly noticeable that the present Representative is very tired of the old, spotted silver dollar and has worn out his money in the old hard of a thousand struts for campaign thunder. He is not fond of being
